Capt. Old and Mr. Camp Declare That the Water Question is Up to the Councils and Must be Settled Mr. Barrett's

last night there were present as fol-lows: Messrs, Beaman, acting president; Cousins, Underdown, Camp. Mayo, Tunstall, Whitehurst, Pitt, Old, Fitzgibbons, Tilton, Johnson, South-gate, Ridgwell, Keeling and Seneça.

This was the subject of vigorous opposition, on the ground of its illegality, by Mr. J. G. Tilton. He said that we have no right to expend the city's money for that purpose,

Mr. Tilton objected, because the taxes were delinquent, and if the Gollector could not collect them, and the delinquent tax colector can't collect them, the people's money should not be expended for the employment of a clark.

expended for the employment of a cigrk.

Judge Keeling explained that the appointment was necessary because the taxes which are delinquent cannot be collected otherwise.

Mr. Tilton explained that there are too many officers. He stated that there are eight physicians, more or less, to attend to the medical calls of the city.

Mr. Southgate stated that the committee of which he is a member has examined the matter carefully, and that they deemed it necessary to have some clerical assistant in order to have the three bills for the delinquents of three years presented together.

On a suspension of the rules, the vote was 15 ayes to 1 nay.

Mr. Tilton changed his vote in order to move for a reconsideration.

The Anheuser-Busch Company was granted permission to build on Brooke avenue.

The Fire Committee reported favorably to pay her $27 a month.

Judge Keeling asked that no action be taken until the Special Committee on Pensions shall have considered the on Pensions shall have considered the matter.

Mr. Tilton said if Council could vote $785 to a man who is alive and well it should certainly give the pittance of $27.59 a month to the widow of a man who lost his life in trying to save the lives of nurses at the hospital.

Judge Keeling said he was not objecting to the pension to the widow, but he asked the whole subject considered together.

Mr. Southgate approved of Mr. Tit-ton's amendment. It would be incon-sistent to vote money to one man living and not a pension for one man dead.

It was bought at the time water was needed. B. G. Davis offered $1,500 for the farm. The Finance Committee approved the bid of Davis.

There was another bid for $1,750 from Miss Shelton.

Air. Beaman said the City Councils should accept the bid or put the property up for sale at auction.

Captain Old stated that the Davis offer was probably better, because there is a contract with him for a repayment of rent and for growing crops. The tenant has the option of buying at the highest price.

It was referred to the Finance Committee with power to act.

thing the Bery element, try various things to amuse themselves and while away the long hours. It becomes awfully monotonous between "runs," but the boys generally find enough to do when not actually engaged in duty. Like all other men they like fun. They like to play pranks upon one another, and the generally dull moments are converted into lively ones when the joking begins.

Yesterday afternoon one of the men in a certain house wanted to play a joke on a man in another engine-house. A negro boy, who looked like a good specimen of Darwin's theory, was pressed into service. The boys got a heavy stone and put it into a saek. Then they told the colored boy to take it to Nor— at a certain engige-house and to tell him it was a cotton saw. The ignorant boy delivered the heavy load, and when the firemen saw what the contents of the bag was ordered the boy to carry it to still another engine-house, and in this manner kept the poor negro on the go the entire afternoon. Finally he returned to the starting point with the information that no one wanted the saw (?). The colored boy says the next time a fireman hails him he'll know just what he wants.

MR. TILTON INSISTS.

Mr. Tilton insisted on the urgency of the case of the Widow Earrett.

Mr. Johnson also spoke in favor of immediate action on the widow's petition.
